

Impact matrix

How to use this template

This is a tool to help you decide which interventions to focus on, by comparing the effort required to implement the intervention with the predicted impact of the intervention. Each potential intervention is plotted on the matrix, comparing effort required and predicted impact (see template), helping you and the team to decide which interventions to implement.

